Market Stable, Yet Cautious
Stack's Fall Sale Rakes In $2.1 Million

Now that the whirlwind tour of the western numismatic frontier is complete, fall is officially here, and with it the final phase of the 2008 numismatic campaign. Dealers are now busy preparing to make that initial sales push for the holiday rush just around the corner. Others are still transfixed by the chaos in the world financial markets that will conceivably be resolved by the US government to the tune of $700 billion plus. In the face of this unstable economy, savvy collectors and investors are still clamoring for the perceived safer port of rare certified coins for their cash. By most accounts, tried and true American classics are considered a prudent purchase in the current financial storm. Of course, some newcomers are approaching the market from a cautious perspective as apprehension is warranted. Yet history is on the side of numismatics, and most dealers still assert that the market for rarities and phenomenal certified coins remains exceptionally strong. The same buyers also state that demand for solid, mid-range coins as well as scarcer dates within just about all series are protected to a great extent by the expanding collector base. Increasing confidence further for collectors, NGC is doing their part to stave off counterfeiters with their new tamper evident holder, and the soon-to-be-available online service whereby a slabbed coin's serial number is entered to provide visitors with visual verification of their coin. PCGS is also active in the battle of curbing unscrupulous numismatic activities as evidenced by their purchase and display of dies used to make counterfeit coins at September's Long Beach Expo.

The dichotomy that exists for the ultra rare, quality specimens with pedigree versus those that are conditionally rare is staggering. Quick reviews of recent auction prices will verify that certified coins harboring six-figure hammer prices are still being scarfed up as fast as pigeons pecking up popcorn. This is quite apparent in the phenomenal prices received for the rare, highly collectable federal Copper at the Goldberg's Naftzger sale. Here is a case where well-schooled students, high powered investors, as well as many veteran Copper dealers were vying for this once in a lifetime material. On the flip side, those conditional rarities with eye appeal continue to make heads swirl. A perfect example of this powerful component played out during the Heritage Long Beach sale. A 1945S Walker graded PCGS MS67 raced home with a $21,850 Bid to a floor buyer. With a population of 3 PCGS siblings (NGC reports 19), the coin is obviously rare in this condition. However, if this buyer were to set their sights a tad lower, a PCGS community of 644 have been designated MS66. As a matter of reference, a frosty white PCGS example of the exact coin sold at the same sale for $431. Value seekers may have to think long and hard if one grading point is worth 50 times the money. Certainly, most collectors would rather spend their funds in other areas, but for the quality conscious and registry set bragging rights, this purchase certainly fit the bill.

With no major shows on the agenda until the Silver Dollar Expo held in St. Charles, MO, Oct 15-18, some buyers will attempt to unwind and reflect on their recent purchases as well as the state of the market. Classic Silver Commems continue to face the music as many more have drifted lower at auction, as seen in this week's market column. While some feel these low mintage pieces are long overdue to make an upward move, for now they come in handy to generate cash to restock recently depleted inventories and pay for auction wins. Classic Gold offered up the 1922 Grant, as an NGC MS66 specimen rolled back the Bidding clock over 20% at auction. As the golden pendulum swings up, $20 Libs and Saints are the prime benefactors reflecting as much as a 9% advance. Morgan Dollars are driving higher as buyers look to several better dates in MS61-62. Full Banded Mercs are receiving more attention as MS65 and better NGC slabs move up a rung. Select Walkers from the short-set are also shuffling a bit higher in MS65. Mint State Type is getting another boost as both Capped Bust Quarter varieties are feasting on as much as a 20% increase targeting PCGS MS65-66 specimens. Stack's has wasted no time in getting in the swing of the season as their home office gallery in New York was the site for their Autumn Sale, Sept. 24, which raked in $2.1 million. We have listed several highlights.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

MARKET LISTINGS

MARKET columns reflect the latest dealer–to–dealer selling prices seen in the market, based on monitoring Low Asks or Last Trades from wholesale trading networks sell lists coin shows and other sources of wholesale transactions. Auction prices realized or retail trading information are used to adjust prices for infrequently traded issues The Publisher warrants that it has exercised due diligence; presently, there is no practicable method of following all wholesale postings or transactions. Readers should be aware that there is no implied guaranty or belief that the prices listed are actually representative of the current market value of any coin; listing does not guarantee that such a coin is now available for purchase, or that it was actually available at the time the Market price was posted. Due to the volatile nature of the market, current values may be greater or less than the market price listed. A higher grade coin might display a lower Market level than a lower grade specimen, due to limited sell information. Listing Policy: During the thirty days prior to publication, we track the lowest sales–related price in the marketplace. Last Trade information normally takes precedence over Low Asks, except when a lower Ask is posted during the last week before publication. We delete stagnant Market prices which are lower than current Bid. Since the timeliness of the information is important, we use the following timing symbols: "w" – Lowest asking price during the week prior to publication (week old); "m" – Lowest asking price during the previous three weeks (month old); "t" – Trade during the most recent month; "lm" – Lowest asking price appearing last month "lt" Trade appearing last month; "ot" Trade older than 2 months; " " a blank, for all Market prices older than two months; "a" for auction transactions; "oa" – auction older than 1 month.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight–unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

VARIETY DIAGNOSTICS
Hubbed first with a large date design, then hubbed again with a small date design. Doubling mostly on the inside of date especially on "960." MORE>

COMMENTS
This is a very strong variety that continues to gain in popularity. Its popularity will likely be maintained as the only mint state overdate known for the 1960 cents.

Bailout Bolsters Rare Coin Market
Silver Dollar Expo, Scotsman's Sale Up Next

Although many more safeguards are in place since the dark days of 1929, Wall Street and other mega financial institutions apparently have yet to learn their lessons fast enough, especially regarding easy credit. The wait-a-minute gyrations in the stock market seem to be in sync with news of the government's bailout efforts, resulting in volatility followed by vacillation. In stark contrast, the certified rare coin market has been remarkably steady and strong. In the face of utter dismay and financial ruin for some, this hobby of the kings has indeed been performing quite royally. Tangible evidence of this is found with the following fact: Buyer's are posting active Bids equaling nearly $600 million a day on the electronic trading giant CCE. This equates to an average Bid at over $8,400 per offer. Active Bids and overall dollar amounts have actually increased by nearly 5% since the severity of the economic debacle came to light.

Precious metals have been on a wild ride too, and buyers are more than willing to take this bumpy road to ultimately secure some peace of mind in physical ownership. Premiums for the yellow metal in coin or bar have escalated in step with, and most likely as a result of, the downward spiral of the economy. It's obvious that John Q. Public as well as the seasoned collectors are putting their vote in the ballot box for slabbed $20 Libs and Saints, not only as a collectable, but as protection against the possible dark fiscal curtain closing on not only their assorted paper investments, but their local banks as well. A few dealers have informed us that since the bailout was rejected by the House Sept. 29, their phones have not stopped ringing as a nervous populace is looking to stash a substantial portion of their liquid assets into Gold and Silver. Congress repackaged the bailout plan, which passed in the Senate and is expected to pass in the House, and Gold responded to this development by dropping $52 in one day. Demand, however, hasn't softened. Dealers are still coming up short on bullion, and they are pushing customers to purchase the more numismatic US Gold Type coins to meet their metal needs as well as adding a collectable quality to their investment. This strategy has paid off as buyers have reported being very pleased with this option. Some have even given serious consideration to buying some five and six-figure rarities. One customer said he'd rather put cash into completing a high-end Type set, since he'd then have something tangible. A well-known eastern dealer said he feels like a juggler on a high-wire attempting to balance his day between the pseudo panic shopper and the established clientele. It is without a doubt a very volatile time, yet most professionals we have spoken to contend that for the average collector, it is still business as usual.

With the next major show but two weeks away, dealers are attempting to focus on what will hopefully be a lucrative and productive trip. The Silver Dollar Expo, Oct. 15-18, and Scotsman's Collectors' auction, Oct. 17—which will feature a mouth watering array of 81 Gold coins pedigreed to the Eliasberg collection—will be the destination as dealers converge in collector friendly St. Louis. While buyers are highly visible in the sight-unseen venue, for the most part they are happy to attempt to corral as much quality material as they can without raising the ante. Of course, Classic Silver Commems are serving up another helping of quick cash as several sundry examples sluggishly drift south. Scarcer Morgan Dollars are still featuring solid demand, yet a handful of commoners lost a little luster at auction. Peace Dollars left something on the table too, as a 1921 NGC MS63 left over 20% on the plate after an auction appearance. The tougher 1927S, an NGC MS64, realized $920 at the same event, while a well-known buyer had a firm blind offer of $1,100 in plain sight. On the flipside, ANACS injects some upward bias in this corner as the better 1923S leads the volley, claiming a double-digit hike to $1,500. Mint State and Proof Type are still performing like champs, and ANACS and ICG Matte Proof Lincolns are thriving on some dual-digit advances. Buyers are no doubt anxious to set up theme sets, pairing the old Coppers with each of the 4 newly designed Lincoln Cent Bicentennial reverses, scheduled to make their appearance beginning Feb. 12, 2009. Other Copper is hot too, as ANACS MS66RB Braided Hair Large Cents lead the pack, tacking on 20% above previous Bid. Full Banded MS67 Mercs bearing the ICG brand are favoring us with some nice action as commoners jump to $55. Gold Type is still a hot spot as none other than $20 Saints take the checkered flag. MS62-MS66 examples race ahead by as much as 9%.

A LITTLE STICKER MAKES A BIG DIFFERENCE.

Actually, it's smaller than a coffee bean. But the impact it's having on the coin market is significant. Coins bearing the CAC sticker are bringing notable premiums at auction. Not surprising, since CAC coins are considered, at minimum, 'solid' for the grade. In just a few months, CAC has authenticated 50,000 coins with an estimated value of $300 million.

That's what happens when you bring an idea whose time has come to market. Only coins that meet our strict standard earn the CAC sticker. We believe so strongly in the value of CAC quality coins that we have capital commitments upward of $25 million for the sole purpose of making markets in our product.

To learn more about the big difference CAC coins can make in your collection visit CACcoin.com.

Premiums Explode For Generic Gold Collectors Take Stock In Rare Coins

By all accounts, the new season has greeted us with one wild adventure. Certainly not for the squeamish, the historic roller-coaster ride continues to send shivers down the spine of Main Street America. Extraordinary government intervention has yet to quell the panic and return that secure, warm fuzzy feeling on Wall Street. Worldwide intercession, led by the Federal Reserve's announcement that the prime lending rate would be cut by .50% October 8, was a further measure attempting to stem the tide. Joining the United States in this coordinated rate cut was the European Central Bank, the Bank of England, the Swiss, Canadian and Swedish Central Banks, as well as China. While the stock market continues its slalom, shrieks can be heard by many a retirement account holder, as American pensions have lost as much as 2 trillion dollars over the past 15 months. The Dow Jones average has plummeted about 39% from its all-time high of 14,165, reached one short year ago. What a difference a year makes, as we've gone from an absolute peak, to a day closing below 9,000 for the first time since 2003.

On the bright side, Gold continues to shine as a remarkable highlight to the certified numismatic equation. While the yellow metal has had its own ups and downs over the last turbulent month, it is still trading in the same general vicinity. The remarkable posturing and reemergence as the perceived safe harbor to dock some cash has come with some surging premiums too. In fact, the premium over Spot for $20 Saints in MS62 has increased five fold in less than a month. Several bullion dealers are still fielding non-stop inquires and taking orders at all hours of the day even at these elevated levels. Although six-figure rarities aren't flying out the door, business in the certified arena is still chugging along at a solid pace as most true numismatists feel rather safe in taking stock in rare coins. Certainly for many fringe collectors, it will take some time to rebuild the confidence that the financial debacle has caused, yet coins that are truly rare or happen to be key members of a series are still being gobbled up at current levels.

Sight-unseen trading is strong with no major upheaval or panic selling occurring. This strength can also be seen in the CCDN CMI, higher for the first time in 9 weeks at 926.57. Classic Silver Commems are doing their part to keep cash flowing as 20 are drifting back. Mint State Morgans are picking up the pace in the collector friendly MS64 column as commoners top $47. Few bargains were let go, although a better date (albeit cloaked with ugly toning) 1887S NGC MS63 specimen left 30% on the blind Bidding table after an internet auction appearance. Mint State and Proof Type remain solid with buyers, and the hot early Lincoln Matte Proof property continues to find buyers raising the ante as Red-Brown and Full Red combos are all getting a boost. Dealers are planning their promotions and looking to pair theme sets of the early Proof Coppers side by side with the newly designed 2009 installments. Gold Type is a hot bed as most denominations are enjoying advances. $10 Libs in MS61 and MS62 increase by as much as 20%, coming in at $530 and $540 respectively. $20 Libs and Saints make hay too, as the latter tops $2,550 in MS66.

While it certainly hasn't been a typical early fall, dealers and collectors are anxious to see how the Silver Dollar Expo and Scotsman's sale in the greater St. Louis area will fare next week. After the Midwest junket, two significant sales will keep the market on its toes. In New York City, October 22, Stack's will host their 73rd Anniversary Sale. Dallas, Texas will be the next stop as Heritage will host an auction featuring prime offerings from the Jack Lee estate, running October 23-25. We have listed several highlights.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

A LITTLE STICKER MAKES A BIG DIFFERENCE.

Actually, it's smaller than a coffee bean. But the impact it's having on the coin market is significant. Coins bearing the CAC sticker are bringing notable premiums at auction. Not surprising, since CAC coins are considered, at minimum, 'solid' for the grade. In just a few months, CAC has authenticated 50,000 coins with an estimated value of $300 million.

That's what happens when you bring an idea whose time has come to market. Only coins that meet our strict standard earn the CAC sticker. We believe so strongly in the value of CAC quality coins that we have capital commitments upward of $25 million for the sole purpose of making markets in our product.

The Next Generation
Coin Holder from NGC

NGC is proud to introduce the most rigorously tested coin holder ever developed.

The new NGC EdgeView® Holder ensures the ultimate in security and protection for your coins. We've incorporated cutting-edge features, including a micro-printed label with a UV watermark, and an advanced-technology hologram fused directly onto the back of the holder — that is virtually impossible to reproduce. Directional pressure welding cleanly and completely seals your coin inside the holder.

The unique materials employed are identical to those tested, and now used, by the Smithsonian in their NGC-developed museum holder that houses the National Numismatic Collection's most valuable coins. Plus, NGC's lauded EdgeView design suspends the coin within four cushioned prongs to showcase its edge and enhance the overall presentation.

Hobby-leading innovation — just another way we demonstrate our rare commitment to numismatics.

PROOFLIKE MORGAN DOLLARS

P/L Dollars may be semi-reflective, with less reflectivity than the deep-mirror Prooflikes. Bids for P/L's are usually much lower than for DMPL's, but command some premium over non-P/L strikes.

No Misery In Missouri
Precious Metals: Let's Get Physical

While world stock markets attempt to rebound on government intervention, the stability and secure feelings that are desperately needed on Main Street are still several zip codes away. The global economic upheaval not seen since the Great Depression carries enormous weight on a daily basis. Quite amazingly, this great hobby finds that the raging bull, though not snorting fire, is still charging ahead. A good indicator of the present numismatic state can be viewed courtesy of the well-attended Silver Dollar Expo and Scotsman auction. As we go to press, the Midwestern contingent of collectors has made the trek, even as apprehension and uncertainty in world finances continue to make the front page. The average collectors that we have heard from are still anxious to fill some holes in their collections. A few have stated they just want to get some Gold and Silver before things really get out of hand. Dealers we talked to in Saint Charles, MO concur that business was brisk during set-up, and notable transactions are still being conducted on both the retail and wholesale fronts. One well-known Silver Dollar specialist said he is having a "bang-up show." The demand for high-end conditional rarities as well as DMPLs is as strong as ever. He also said that if ever there was a time to lock up some scarcer dates, this is it, especially for those still perceived undervalued MS64 slabs. Most buyers on the bourse agree that original, problem-free coins in the $500-$2,000 range that are properly graded or have the CAC seal of approval are being scarfed up at current levels. Meanwhile, average slabbed dreck that was listless earlier this year is still on the outs, and maybe drifting farther down the shaft. Several attendees that had been burned royally by the stock market have rescued some capital from the Wall Street fire sales and are looking to park it into some rare coins. As one said, "I should have made this move earlier. At least I would have had more cash for physical purchases, like better Liberty Seated coins and Gold Type."

Bullion dealers were extraordinarily busy. Descending like locusts on a cornfield, collectors couldn't seem to get their collective hands on enough buttery yellow coins. Premiums, though very high, met no resistance from buyers as hard assets over paper were a strong incentive. Even with the daily drops in precious metals leading into and during the show, dealers were willing to pay as much as $75 over Spot for K'rands to fill orders. Silver was hot too, as Eagles were fetching nearly 50% over Spot, wholesale. Other dealers have said that the tightening of the supply of physical Gold bullion and Silver on the market is helping many of them segue new customers into the more collectable numismatic US Gold coins and Silver Dollars.

Away from the convention hall, the sight-unseen market is buzzing along. If buyers need more corroboration, consider this: The big generic market on CCE racked up nearly $600,000 in $20 Gold trades, the week ending October 10. We have to go back to the last week of January 2008 to find a heavier trading week. Other aspects of the sight-unseen market are also revving higher. Take Silver Dollars: although Spot Silver is trading down at around $9.50, demand for this sometimes forgotten precious metal is quite strong. MS63-65 slabbed Morgans are all blind Bid higher, led by the MS65s with a 6% run-up, muscling to $127. A few bargains did manage to slip through the cracks in various cyberspace auctions. Most notably, over 40% was left on the table when a rather flashy NGC MS65 1881S was snapped up for $75. A trio of other slightly better Morgans, including an 1891S PCGS MS63, 1903 NGC MS64 and 1897S NGC MS63 were all considerable bargains, each selling for over 20% below sight-unseen Bid. While Gold Spot greeted the opening day at the expo with a $45 slide, Gold Type isn't offering up any bargains as sellers still have to pay a significant premium when replacing inventory. Typically, generic Mercs and Buffalos have plenty of active buyers at designated levels, yet once again, many aren't taking up the sight-unseen trading networks' offers as several more late date, high-grade Buffalos leave as much as 40% on the great trading plain. Franklins aren't ringing any bells either as a half dozen see double-digit rollbacks. Another half dozen left 20% or more out of the consignors' pockets, led by the PCGS 1948D and 1954D, each surrendering over 44%. ANACS has unveiled their new, improved slab. Nearly a year under new ownership, the familiar, clear view capsule with blue text insert has been modified and now features a gold label.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

A LITTLE STICKER MAKES A BIG DIFFERENCE.

Actually, it's smaller than a coffee bean. But the impact it's having on the coin market is significant. Coins bearing the CAC sticker are bringing notable premiums at auction. Not surprising, since CAC coins are considered, at minimum, 'solid' for the grade. In just a few months, CAC has authenticated 50,000 coins with an estimated value of $300 million.

That's what happens when you bring an idea whose time has come to market. Only coins that meet our strict standard earn the CAC sticker. We believe so strongly in the value of CAC quality coins that we have capital commitments upward of $25 million for the sole purpose of making markets in our product.

Stack's Completes 73rd Anniversary Auction
Rare Coins Attractive Despite Early Fears

Apparently, still not flustered by the recent stock market swoon and financial gloom, this rare coin market has much attraction that history and unyielding staying power have solidified. For some, the early mood was that the rampant, ill feelings from the ever widening global picture would have an immediate impact on coins. Fears that panic selling would cause a free fall just never materialized into reality. While participants remain very discerning about purchases, they are not at all averse to picking up some great, moderately priced slabbed collector coins. With one eye on their stock portfolio, they hope the ongoing financial fiasco will leave them some cash so they can scoff up those nicer offerings that rear up. A perfect example of this was at the recently concluded Silver Dollar Expo. While a somewhat smaller venue, most all of the major players had a presence in Missouri, not only for sales, but to canvass the bourse walk and make some much needed purchases when the opportunities presented themselves.

Many of the professionals that we have spoken to state that most customers don't plan on selling anything of substance in this market. They are confident that price levels are strong and their collection's core value could continue to escalate. Of course, some are looking to get rid of the occasional duplicate or material outside their current specific interests. Yet even then, most of this ardent crowd has designs on putting that cash right back into their coin dealer's pocket when want list items are filled. The word from the bourse at last week's Silver Dollar Expo seemed to corroborate this sentiment as most patrons have not really changed their buying habits and don't plan to, at least for the balance of the year. Many feel that a properly graded, scarce or rare certified coin will continue to hold its value. Scotsman's well-attended sale is a powerful testament to this, reeling in strong prices for many lots as well as a new sales record for that growing Midwest company. A trio of weekly internet only auctions is not missing a beat either, as Heritage, Teletrade, and David Lawrence have already accounted for over $3 million in sales for what otherwise could have been a scary month of October.

As for the sight-unseen market, a bit of positive action is seen in the Classic Silver Commem corner. A pair of double-digit advances targets the Bridgeport, or perhaps better known as the P.T. Barnum issue, as NGC MS65 examples top $200. Those issues in MS66 gain entry under the big top too, pulling in $275. Unfortunately, prosperity has yet to embrace the rest of the series as several more installments have taken a sucker punch. The biggest loss is courtesy of the hard landing of the 1920 Pilgrim, as NGC MS66 examples drift to $505. Classic Gold counterparts maintain the status quo as buyers are hesitant to offer up any bargains. Although Spot Sliver is trading under $10, demand for just about all Silver coins is unrelenting. Morgans are still under pressure with buyers looking to capture generic Gems as MS65 caliber slabs inch up to $128. Actually, only a handful slipped under the auction radar and then each only giving up negligible losses. Peace Dollars are fairly sound as only two NGC offerings show losses: A 1926 in MS64 and a 1926S in MS63 leave double digit money on the Bidding table. The former, a brown speckled specimen, was cast away in cyberspace for $57, as noted in this week's market column, while a blind Bid some 37% higher watched. Mint State and Proof Type maintain Bidding muster with only a few jumping ship. Although giving up some Bidding might as the yellow metal drifts to $725, Gold Type, especially $20 Libs and Saints, is still packing considerable premiums. Bidding paddles were flying high in New York as Stack's concluded their impressive 73rd Anniversary Sale. We have listed many highlights.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

MARKET LISTINGS

MARKET columns reflect the latest dealer-to-dealer selling prices seen in the market, based on monitoring Low Asks or Last Trades from wholesale trading networks, sell lists, coin shows and other sources of wholesale transactions. Auction prices realized or retail trading information are used to adjust prices for infrequently traded issues. The Publisher warrants that it has exercised due diligence; presently, there is no practicable method of following all wholesale postings or transactions. Readers should be aware that there is no implied guaranty or belief that the prices listed are actually representative of the current market value of any coin; listing does not guarantee that such a coin is now available for purchase, or that it was actually available at the time the Market price was posted. Due to the volatile nature of the market, current values may be greater or less than the market price listed. A higher grade coin might display a lower Market level than a lower grade specimen, due to limited sell information. Listing Policy: During the thirty days prior to publication, we track the lowest sales-related price in the marketplace. Last Trade information normally takes precedence over Low Asks, except when a lower Ask is posted during the last week before publication. We delete stagnant Market prices which are lower than current Bid. Since the timeliness of the information is important, we use the following timing symbols: "w" – Lowest asking price during the week prior to publication (week old); "m" – Lowest asking price during the previous three weeks (*m*onth old); "t" – *T*rade during the most recent month; "lm" – Lowest asking price appearing *l*ast *m*onth; "lt" *T*rade appearing *l*ast month; "ot" *T*rade older than 2 months; " " a blank, for all Market prices older than two months; "a" for auction transactions; "oa" – auction older than 1 month.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

A LITTLE STICKER MAKES A BIG DIFFERENCE.

Actually, it's smaller than a coffee bean. But the impact it's having on the coin market is significant. Coins bearing the CAC sticker are bringing notable premiums at auction. Not surprising, since CAC coins are considered, at minimum, 'solid' for the grade. In just a few months, CAC has authenticated 50,000 coins with an estimated value of $300 million.

That's what happens when you bring an idea whose time has come to market. Only coins that meet our strict standard earn the CAC sticker. We believe so strongly in the value of CAC quality coins that we have capital commitments upward of $25 million for the sole purpose of making markets in our product.

The Next Generation
Coin Holder from NGC

NGC is proud to introduce the most rigorously tested coin holder ever developed.

The new NGC EdgeView® Holder ensures the ultimate in security and protection for your coins. We've incorporated cutting-edge features, including a micro-printed label with a UV watermark, and an advanced-technology hologram fused directly onto the back of the holder — that is virtually impossible to reproduce. Directional pressure welding cleanly and completely seals your coin inside the holder.

The unique materials employed are identical to those tested, and now used, by the Smithsonian in their NGC-developed museum holder that houses the National Numismatic Collection's most valuable coins. Plus, NGC's lauded EdgeView design suspends the coin within four cushioned prongs to showcase its edge and enhance the overall presentation.

Hobby-leading innovation — just another way we demonstrate our rare commitment to numismatics.

Better Date Morgans By A Landslide
Double Eagle Rarities Take Flight

Today's certified rare coin market has amazed even some longtime experts. Some may have thought the economic downfall would bring the rare coin gravy train to a halt, but not so. This forum isn't akin to the stock market where euphoria and sizable gain can be wiped out overnight at the first sign of trouble or greed. The Fed is continuing its attempts to turn things around by slashing the federal funds rate to a slender 1% on 10/29 (the 79th anniversary of the great Wall Street Crash of 1929). While the money on the sidelines may be somewhat emaciated due to global gluttony, a good portion of those funds are still finding their way to the rare coin sector. Buyers are certainly more selective today, raising Bids to attract top tier material. For example, key date Morgans are showing significant increases this week for specimens in the 5- and 6-figure range. On the other end of the spectrum, the dreck and also-ran slabs that didn't have a ghost of a chance at finding a home earlier this year are still getting an eerie cold shoulder.

Overall, well-known professionals advise that business is still being conducted at a good clip. Most have actually done quite well even with the shroud of uncertainty that has permeated the atmosphere the last month or so. Prospects are solid for more business to round out the year, and a lot of the demand has been and continues to be bullion driven. Perhaps benefiting from the lack of physical bullion Gold coins readily available, or because of significant premiums, more off-the-street converts are making an easier transition from the bullion material to older, numismatic Gold. The pendulum is swinging between better date $20 Libs and Saints, as a quick glance at the recently concluded Heritage sale in Dallas demonstrates. Of the ten lots in this auction that brought home over $100K, nine were Double Eagles, raking in nearly $2.4 million as a group. One standout rarity from this collection was the phenomenal PCGS AU55 1854O $20 Liberty, selling for $603,750. This coin has an original mintage of a scant 3,250 with not more than 20 to 25 examples accounted for in all grades. Adding to the appeal, this specimen is fortified with all the key ingredients for this or any market: history, romance and unquestioned rarity.

Sight-Unseen action isn't all that scary this Halloween. Who would be afraid in such a strong market? This week's CCDN CMI, at 931.29, is up 23 points from January. Classic Silver Commems are flashing a little double digit-action, led by the $150 bounce up for the popular 1918 Lincoln Illinois grading NGC MS67. Classic Gold does spy a quartet easing back as the Sesquicentennial Quarter Eagle flies south giving up $300 for the NGC MS65 flock. Morgan mania is ever-present as buyers have thrown down the gauntlet seeing if any will pick up the challenge as over 50 better date Mint State and always desirable DMPLs are feasting on double and even triple digit advances. No trick here as buyers are willing to advance the sight-unseen ante big time for these slabs. Leading the Dimple brigade is the inaugural 1878 7TF Reverse of '78 driving ahead over 200%, reflecting on a $900 blind Bid for PCGS 64 material. Regular Mint State issues are a who's who of the series' keys. Well-known celebrities, 1892S, 1893S, 1894, and 1895O are all participating as anxious buyers attempt to acquire these prime-time players. Gold Spot, although still on a roller-coaster ride, is not frightening many buyers as they are still willing to pay powerful premiums to get all those that glitter.

The East Coast will be busy as participants prepare for the modest, though varied smorgasbord of numismatic material offered in the Doyle auction November 3rd in New York. That same week, Coinfest hosts their November 7-9 show in Stamford, CT. Stack's is featuring the Haverford Sale in conjunction with the Connecticut show (see preview herein). While not bursting with rarities, a superb roster of high-end collector coins, paper money and eclectic entries should make for a competitive event.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

Big Generic Market Moves $20 Million In 1st Year CAC And Collector Coins Winning Combination

As the late fall crusade looks to keep the passionate numismatic brethren focused with a plethora of coin conventions, it's the average Joe collectors in the world that are fueling the market with purchases week in and week out. The sheer magnitude of weekly internet-only sales is definitely an eye opener. Massive volumes of better plastic including Type and key dates, typically ranging from a couple hundred to a few thousand dollars a pop, are making their appearances felt. In an average month, over $4 million in sales is generated in these bi-weekly and tri-weekly encounters hosted by Heritage, Teletrade and David Lawrence. Others, including Bowers & Merena, Stack's and Superior have recently gotten onboard as well. CCE's Big Generic Market has just concluded its first year with their new format. This powerful sight-unseen segment of the certified coin caravan is approaching $20 million in transactions as it closes out its first year. Internet-only auctions and the CCE Big Market combined are raking in nearly $6 million per month.

A solid audience has made the trek to the east coast to attend Coinfest in Stamford, CT, November 7-9. Well produced shows such as this are strategically drawing from a significant and rich collector base. Buyers are keeping their eyes peeled for flashy, problem-free Gold Type at reasonable levels—if such a thing exists—in this present market. Based on this show's locale, early federal and sundry colonial Copper is likely to do well. CAC, the company adorning PCGS and NGC slabs with green and gold stickers, is providing a free service to collectors at the Stamford show. Saturday, November 8, CAC will attempt to evaluate up to 20 coins per collector free of charge. So far, CAC has received 69,611 submissions in its inaugural year, of which less than half, some 34,195, have been awarded the green sticker. Only a scant 138 have been bestowed with the coveted gold sticker, which indicates a prime candidate for an upgrade. In total, rarities valued at over $400 million have been CACed, which is definitely making a sizable impact on the rare coin marketplace.

Classic Silver Commems feature a cast of seven on the upswing and only a few of dissenters. Leading the surge with double-digit action is the PCGS MS67 Lincoln at $1,250. While key date Morgans are enjoying continued support, commoners in MS64-65 are down, with those in Gem drifting to $123. Several other Morgans left some action on the table. For example, the popular 1903O NGC MS63 sold at retail auction for $298 with a sight-unseen Bid of $345 going unnoticed and remaining in place. Mint State and Proof Type are getting a touch of an Indian summer. Top-tier Liberty Seated Halves With Motto and Barber counterparts are feeling the heat in several grades, the former claiming $9,500 for PCGS MS67 material, and the latter in the same grade tops $9,200. Proof Type is a knockout as the same heady buyer is raising the ante big-time for PCGS PR67 Liberty Seated Quarters With Motto, reeling in nearly a 30% advance. Ever-popular Barber Quarters race ahead over 55% as PCGS PR67 slabs encounter a hefty $4,300 blind offer. With only 45 making the grade as such, this buyer has probably sight-seen many of them in his travels. Mint State Gold Type is still an ongoing concern for buyers. As $5 and $10 Libs of the PCGS and NGC persuasion move up a notch, buyers are also shifting gears, willing to chase after most ANACS and ICG slabs to satisfy growing customer demands. Some bargains may exist here. While ICG and ANACS $10 Libs grading MS62 are reflecting a 10% gain, they are still 7% under the PCGS and NGC Bids. Mercs remain an enigma as viable, prominently featured blind Bids are missing the mark. Many Full Banded commoners in high grade continue to sell at retail venues leaving as much as 30% on the table.

A LITTLE STICKER MAKES A BIG DIFFERENCE.

Actually, it's smaller than a coffee bean. But the impact it's having on the coin market is significant. Coins bearing the CAC sticker are bringing notable premiums at auction. Not surprising, since CAC coins are considered, at minimum, 'solid' for the grade. In just a few months, CAC has authenticated 50,000 coins with an estimated value of $300 million.

That's what happens when you bring an idea whose time has come to market. Only coins that meet our strict standard earn the CAC sticker. We believe so strongly in the value of CAC quality coins that we have capital commitments upward of $25 million for the sole purpose of making markets in our product.

To learn more about the big difference CAC coins can make in your collection visit CACcoin.com.

Gold At 13-Month Low
Coast-To-Coast Shows Unrelenting

Overall global financial fitness is still a major concern to the public at large, yet those in the slab "biz" have voiced unequivocally that the numismatic market is still solid. Those hardy dealers having just adjourned business on the east coast find themselves canvassing the warmer western terrain at the Santa Clara Expo and Superior auction. Most rank and file dealers share the same opinion that a sizable stockpile of cash is still ready to pounce on the higher echelon material if it appears at auction or on the feted bourse. The main drawback is—as it has been since the onset of the bull market—finding saleable inventory in quantity. Still astounding most veterans are the strong premiums and unyielding demand for Gold coins—any gold coins. It seems to make no difference to the core of metal mongers that Gold has lost some 30% since basking over the $1,000 level, last achieved in March of this year. At $705, Spot hasn't been this low since September of 2007. The current market for certified MS62 and better $20 Saints is still a serious barometer, with premiums at nearly 40% over Spot.

Nonetheless, the battle ensues in the Golden State to be the first to uncover the prime certified bread-and-butter collector coins in the $500 to $5K range that make this market run. These same warriors attended the Superior auction November 13 on site at the Santa Clara show. From here, dealers will head to the Whitman, Baltimore Coins and Currency Expo. Time to shuttle across the great divide, shift gears, devour catalog listings and online images in preparation for the pair of sales at the east coast venue. November 18 will find Stack's getting the ball rolling with their Keusch, Snow and Del Zorro pre-Baltimore sale. The official auction company of the host event, Bowers & Merena, will hold their sale November 19-22. Ping-pong anyone? Then it's back to Houston, December 5-7, for the popular Money Show of the Southwest. Next up is a midweek event as Las Vegas will host the inaugural PNG Dealer's Deal show December 10-11 at the Wynn Las Vegas hotel and casino. NGC will be on site, as will both PNG and non-PNG dealers. Invited collector guests as well as members of the general public will also attend.

Once again in sight-unseen trading, several Classic Silver Commems are coming up short of the mark. The only bright light is the last state themed issue, the 1946 Iowa, seen taking MS65 sight-unseen offers to $90. With Silver Spot hovering in the low $9 range, generic Morgans have felt the pinch as MS65 examples drift back to $118, and MS66 caliber offerings settle at $235. Most of the better dates and Prooflike Dollars, those that aren't able to be had by the car load, are still finding a host of buyers at designated levels. A pair of NGC Mercs is making some noise as the 1916S advances over 20% for MS67 examples, topping off at $850. The tougher 1928 Denver entry in like grade tacks on $100, settling in at the elevated $1,300. A host of better date collector coins is getting a nice push up the ladder as nearly a dozen Washington Quarters from the mid to late thirties claim double-digit advances. Mint State Type reveals a solid charge for reduced size Capped Bust Quarters. PCGS MS67 examples jump to $60K. Early Copper remains hot as the rare Draped Bust Large Cents find NGC Full Red examples muscling up by as much as 21% for MS62 specimens. As Gold Spot drifts to the $700 range, most low-end generics are easing back a mite. However, an aggressive PCGS fancier is detonating a charge under the tough $10 Libs, No Motto as MS65 coins roll to an impressive $55K, and MS66 rarities slam ahead to $100K. CCE's new policy, which went into effect November 12, is probably at work here with some 3,090 additional coins now Biddable in higher grades. This change is the result of updated pops within the system, something that has not taken place in three years.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

To a Coin Collector, Confidence is Priceless

Everyone wants to be confident about the quality of a coin. When it's a CAC-verified coin, you can trade with confidence.

Whether you're a novice or advanced collector, you know that quality is what determines the value of a rare coin. The problem is, within any certified coin grade, not all coins are "solid" quality coins. Now there's an easy way to identify coins that are solid for the grade - just look for the CAC verification sticker.

CAC verifies previously graded coins and awards our green sticker only to those coins which meet our high standards for quality within their grade. What's more, CAC is a powerful market maker for CAC verified coins. In fact, this year alone, CAC has purchased over $50,000,000 worth of CAC verified coins..

Want confidence in the value of a coin? Look for the CAC sticker.

For more confidence in the value of a coin, look for the CAC green sticker.

You probably haven't seen our work.

All you'd see is a beautiful coin.

A common first reaction to a professionally conserved coin is wonderment. Conservation reduces the ill effects of improper storage or exposure to environmental contaminants — substantially improving a coin's visual appeal.

Most conservation projects involve only the removal of surface impurities, enhancing the vibrancy of the coin's original patina.

Specific conservation focuses attention on a small area of a coin's surface to remove a spot or debris. This eliminates a visual distraction and removes the impurity that may cause further deterioration.

By returning a coin's surface to its original state, its natural beauty shines through. The professional conservation goes unnoticed, and the result is a beautiful coin.

PROOFLIKE MORGAN DOLLARS

P/L Dollars may be semi-reflective, with less reflectivity than the deep-mirror Prooflikes. Bids for P/L's are usually much lower than for DMPL's, but command some premium over non-P/L strikes.

No Recession In Old Line State
Stack's Auction Gavels $7.5 Million

Well orchestrated east coast venues such as the Whitman show are usually instrumental in drawing in a rich and diverse base of collectors. Enticing the experienced enthusiasts and luring in newcomers, it seems to especially attract those in tune with early numismatic history, having a profound appreciation for that bygone era. So it's not at all a surprise that we find truly rare and eclectic offerings raising the bar in Baltimore. Pre-expo action was, in a word, electric, as those in attendance at the November 18-19 Stack's sale will readily attest. This three session event reeled in over $7.5 million. Early Copper was fiercely contested as late 18th and early 19th century problem-free examples in high grade not only spun some heads, but also sent Bidding paddles flailing. Since there is never enough of this prime numismatic material available, when a pedigreed piece or a coin near or at the pinnacle of the well scrutinized population reports hits the block, it usually brings down the house. Such was the case for the 1813 Classic Head Large Cent, a rather humble coin in Circ, but extraordinary in Mint State, rocketing home $207,000 for a PCGS MS65BN specimen. The extremely rare 1808 Quarter Eagle, a PCGS MS63 adorned with a green CAC sticker, roared in with a $517,500 price realized. Performing like a champ, this gem, pedigreed to the Oliver Jung collection, profited 61% since its last public appearance, an ANR sale four years ago when it hammered home $322,000.

Although fears linger as to when the next fiscal shoe will drop and how hard, rare coins are still rallying compatriots to arms. Need further confirmation? Hawaiian coins have always had a solid niche, yet the popular 1883 entries, struck in San Francisco, have hit the after burners. Take a look at the $347,875 realized at the Stack's event for the glorious and ostensibly finest known 5-piece Proof Set. This record price for the NGC graded slabs may well look like a bargain down the road as only 26 pieces were stuck for each of the Dime through Dollar, and but 20 for the coveted 1/8 Dollar or Hapawalu, all of which were originally given to Mint officials and Island dignitaries.

As you might expect, sight-unseen trading is on the quiet side as dealers have been traveling coast-to-coast with no spare time to log in new Bids. Classic Silver Commems are drifting back again as nearly 20 installments decline at under 10%. Classic Gold features a surprise to some as the icon of the ensemble, the $50 Pan-Pac round version, slides back nearly 16% after a less than stellar performance from an NGC MS62 example on the auction block. Generic Morgans are sliding again, this time in MS63-64, now at $35 and $46 respectively. Peace Dollars are courting a pair of spunky advances as the scarcer 1927D and 1924S deliver a solid boost for NGC MS65 examples, each riding a $250 bump up. Mint State and Proof Type hold the line as buyers are still hoping to capitalize on standing offers. Gold Type, while still in demand, has seen supplies increase on the market resulting in a minor rollback for generic Eagles and Double Eagles. Merc Dimes wearing the NGC label have received a modest yet welcome escalation as buyers look to reel in MS65 and MS66 specimens with fully split bands from the mid 1930s on. Walkers, both Mint State and Proof, are also thankful, getting a little nudge up the Bidding ladder.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

To a Coin Collector, Confidence is Priceless

Everyone wants to be confident about the quality of a coin. When it's a CAC-verified coin, you can trade with confidence.

Whether you're a novice or advanced collector, you know that quality is what determines the value of a rare coin. The problem is, within any certified coin grade, not all coins are "solid" quality coins. Now there's an easy way to identify coins that are solid for the grade - just look for the CAC verification sticker.

CAC verifies previously graded coins and awards our green sticker only to those coins which meet our high standards for quality within their grade. What's more, CAC is a powerful market maker for CAC verified coins. In fact, this year alone, CAC has purchased over $50,000,000 worth of CAC verified coins..

Want confidence in the value of a coin? Look for the CAC sticker.

Finest Lincolns Anchor Houston Auction
Fewer Bids Posted For November

After a well-attended Baltimore show, the numismatic faithful have earned a brief respite to collect themselves and enjoy a holiday. The interlude will be a short one to savor as the numismatic road show then heads deep into the heart of Texas. Next week, it's time to set-up shop at the much anticipated Houston Money Show of the Southwest, December 5-7. This high octane extravaganza will host over 500 dealers, all anxious to do some business in the Lone Star State. Most professionals on this arduous circuit have had another great year and are looking to close out 2008 on a positive note.

In spite of the gloomy economic cloud that has more than threatened to rain on this parading bull, the majority of players are pleased with the volume and scope of recent activity. In order to keep the certified coin caravan rolling along, they desperately need to locate those top tier coins and rarities. Veteran dealers in tune with today's selective environment will stretch, but not break the bank on the bourse or in the pursuit of that superb slab amongst the nearly 7,000 coins at the host Heritage auction running December 4-7. Those looking to capture some top flight rarities will surely be gunning for Copper. Without a doubt, the most collected coin in the US is the Lincoln Cent. For those ardent aficionados, some jaw dropping Lincolns from the number #1 ranked registry set, featuring specimens pedigreed to the Jack Lee estate, are sure to make some heads spin at the sale. Others, of course, will be tending those ever-aging want lists, eager to locate earlier Type material and rare dated Gold, looking not only to bolster anemic inventories, but to satisfy customers and get a leg up on the end of year rush.

While the hunt continues in most quarters to acquire pleasing certified coins, the electronic trading workhorse, CCE, is delivering a sobering perspective. Just a few months ago, total visible Bids, both sight-seen and sight-unseen, amounted to well over $500,000,000 on a daily basis. As we go to press, registered dealers within the active Bidding ranks have dropped by 15%, and the total dollar amount of those active listings has slalomed down to under $220,000,000. All series have been affected by this turnabout. Certainly some participants have just removed their Bids entirely while other calculating dealers most assuredly have just lowered the ante, hoping to scoop up some bargains. Now with that said, there are still record prices being paid on the bourse and public auctions. This is evidenced by the nearly $14 million hammered home at the pair of sales hosted by Stack's and Bowers & Merena just last week. Seemingly irrespective of the global financial outlook, large pools of cash are still on the sidelines anxious to dive into the prcsent market. It is a more pronounced tale of two cities as the rarities and superb, eye appealing coins thrive while the average slabbed material—lower-end Type, generic Morgans, Mercs, Walkers and Classic Commems head further south.

The sight-unseen market, as one might expect during the holidays, is on the quiet side this week. As our readership can see courtesy of the Market columns, most series have taken quite a few hits. Classic Silver Commems have only the quite apropos 1920 Pilgrim to be thankful for as MS64 examples each land on a higher $80 sight-unseen Bid. On the flip side, nearly 20 other Commems have landed hard with a cast of 7 reeling after double digit losses. Classic Gold finds 7 diminutive jewels rolling back, too. The 1922 Grant lost the biggest battle as a PCGS MS67 offering at retail auction realized $5,350. Morgan and Peace Dollars find most commoners flat, yet a strong desire and visible presence for most key dates exists, although a few NGC bcttcr dates were gobbled up below current levels. Mint State and Proof Type are still holding strong with very few easing back after auction malaise. Gold Type is still carrying hefty premiums, although supply lines are beginning to open up, and current levels are drifting back. The lone holdout are the popular $10 Indians as MS61 examples move up to $625.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

MARKET LISTINGS

MARKET columns reflect the latest dealer-to-dealer selling prices seen in the market, based on monitoring Low Asks or Last Trades from wholesale trading networks, sell lists, coin shows and other sources of wholesale transactions. Auction prices realized or retail trading information are used to adjust prices for infrequently traded issues. The Publisher warrants that it has exercised due diligence; presently, there is no practicable method of following all wholesale postings or transactions. Readers should be aware that there is no implied guaranty or belief that the prices listed are actually representative of the current market value of any coin; listing does not guarantee that such a coin is now available for purchase, or that it was actually available at the time the Market price was posted. Due to the volatile nature of the market, current values may be greater or less than the market price listed. A higher grade coin might display a lower Market level than a lower grade specimen, due to limited sell information. Listing Policy: During the thirty days prior to publication, we track the lowest sales-related price in the marketplace. Last Trade information normally takes precedence over Low Asks, except when a lower Ask is posted during the last week before publication. We delete stagnant Market prices which are lower than current Bid. Since the timeliness of the information is important, we use the following timing symbols: "w" – Lowest asking price during the week prior to publication (week old); "m" – Lowest asking price during the previous three weeks (*m*onth old); "t" – *T*rade during the most recent month; "lm" – Lowest asking price appearing *l*ast *m*onth; "lt" *T*rade appearing *l*ast month; "ot" *T*rade older than 2 months; " " a blank, for all Market prices older than two months; "a" for auction transactions; "oa" – auction older than 1 month

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

To a Coin Collector, Confidence is Priceless

Everyone wants to be confident about the quality of a coin. When it's a CAC-verified coin, you can trade with confidence.

Whether you're a novice or advanced collector, you know that quality is what determines the value of a rare coin. The problem is, within any certified coin grade, not all coins are "solid" quality coins. Now there's an easy way to identify coins that are solid for the grade - just look for the CAC verification sticker.

CAC verifies previously graded coins and awards our green sticker only to those coins which meet our high standards for quality within their grade. What's more, CAC is a powerful market maker for CAC verified coins. In fact, this year alone, CAC has purchased over $50,000,000 worth of CAC verified coins..

Want confidence in the value of a coin? Look for the CAC sticker.

CERTIFIED COIN DEALER newsletter

CCDN — a weekly report on the Sight-Unseen certified market published by the Coin Dealer Newsletter (est. 1963)

Vol. XXIII No. 49 | December 5, 2008 | Single copy price $4.00

Copper Is King In Lone Star State
Second Stringers Getting Some Action

Apparently undaunted by what is now categorized as a recession, the certified coin bandwagon has rolled triumphantly into Texas. The scene is Houston, host city to the Money Show of the Southwest with an auction by Heritage. Though similar in appearance to the mad dash made by consumers the day after Thanksgiving, the numismatic venue has all the action, but has not succumbed to the same serious discounting. The consensus is that the more pricey certified offerings at public sales have not found the welcome wagon waiting because of consignors' reserves being based on the what was market. Still, sales of true collector quality certified coins in top condition—especially those in the $500 to $5,000 neighborhood—have been met with heated competition, reeling in strong prices. This is a testament to the strength of the numismatic arena and the faith that the legion of collectors still has when parking cash into what is concurred to be real assets.

Many, of course, are in accord that high intrinsic value bolstered by a numismatic factor is a perfect combo. In this present case, old Gold coins are the answer. While the waiting time to secure the ever popular Mint State Double Eagles has lessened due to their availability, the premiums are still hefty, and buyers of this perceived safe haven haven't balked. Well-heeled collectors haven't changed their course either, gravitating to the top echelon of certified slabs, pedigreed rarities and registry set material. To illustrate this, dealers and collectors have gone gunning for small change in a big way. Certainly nothing is done on a reduced scale in the Lone Star State, and that goes big-time for our smallest circulating Copper coin. As we go to press, every phenomenal Lincoln Cent attributed to the Jack Lee estate offered in Heritage's sale has already met pre-auction reserves. The road show will traverse to further western territory, as the last stop for many in 2008 will be the PNG Dealer's Deal in Las Vegas, December 10-11. This inaugural, mid-week show will be a bit of a retro outing, blending the trade and grade fests of a few years gone by. PNG has also been involved in a less pleasant activity, dealing with a rash of burglaries in Southern California. Two of the six victims of the thefts, Beverly Hills dealer Kevin Lipton and Numismatic Emporium of Woodland Hills, have joined with PNG to offer a $20,000 reward for the recovery of stolen merchandise, which includes coins and paper money, both raw and certified. All six separate incidents seem to be related in that they took place on Sunday mornings, where the thieves were in and out in less than two minutes in each case. PNG is offering security tips on their website as well as a list of the stolen material.

A few Classic Silver Commems are giving up ground, yet none in the double-digit category. Morgan Dollars find generic MS64 slabs drifting to a $45 Bid, and a handful of sundry offerings have also slid back a tad after auction indifference. To the rescue, a swarm of ANACS and ICG slabs, both commoners and better dates, delivers sight-unseen gains by as much as 40%. Buyers are clearly taking a look at some values amongst the second stringers. Peace Dollars are also feeling a nudge in the ANACS and ICG corner as several Denver strikes claim higher sight-unseen offers. Mint State Type features solidarity as Large Size Capped Bust Quarters are rolling up some action, led by NGC MS63 representatives tacking on a $300 advance. ANACS slabs are feeling the heat too, as Draped Bust Small Eagle Dimes ride a $500 escalation in MS64 to perch on a $6,000 summit. Mint State Gold Type is still on the receiving end of considerable action, and although most Type Gold is wearing some modest losses, demand is still unprecedented. Eagles take flight this week as $10 Libs deliver MS61 PCGS and NGC options to a $525 Bid. Leading the sortie are ICG MS64 $10 Indians taking no prisoners on the way to a $1,600 blind Bid, courtesy of a solid 23% advance. As the graph herein shows, premiums on small Gold are lower today than in mid May 2006 when Spot first leaped over $700. Premiums for Double Eagles have not declined, but have increased significantly for $20 Saint-Gaudens in MS63.

Adding to the multiple changes taking place next year in numismatics, NGC will begin encapsulating and grading ancient coins beginning January 1, 2009. ICG, who also slabs ancients, has announced its plans to relocate from Englewood, Colorado, to Tampa, Florida. The move will place the grading service a mile from their most important supporter, National Gold Exchange, the largest sight-unseen Bidder for ICG.

To a Coin Collector, Confidence is Priceless

Everyone wants to be confident about the quality of a coin. When it's a CAC-verified coin, you can trade with confidence.

Whether you're a novice or advanced collector, you know that quality is what determines the value of a rare coin. The problem is, within any certified coin grade, not all coins are "solid" quality coins. Now there's an easy way to identify coins that are solid for the grade - just look for the CAC verification sticker.

CAC verifies previously graded coins and awards our green sticker only to those coins which meet our high standards for quality within their grade. What's more, CAC is a powerful market maker for CAC verified coins. In fact, this year alone, CAC has purchased over $50,000,000 worth of CAC verified coins..

Want confidence in the value of a coin? Look for the CAC sticker.

For more confidence in the value of a coin, look for the CAC green sticker.

PNG Dealers Deal Winning Hand Commems And Cartwheels Slide

Before the numismatic world winds down and reflects on a highly electric 2008, a final curtain call found dealers playing what they hope to be a winning hand at the Professional Numismatists Guild's Dealer's Deal in Las Vegas. Wynn Casino was the scene as PNG brethren had a chance to conduct business in an opulent setting and get a pulse on what the New Year may bring. Dealers clearly appreciate this type of venue, as the atmosphere lends itself to a more relaxed and highly efficient trading environment, largely afforded by the absence of the demanding retail public. While the public was indeed invited, the sign on the banquet room doors reading "Do Not Enter: Private Meeting" most likely kept any wandering riffraff at bay. Dealers will probably stick around Vegas for a few more days to attend the Israel Bick Coin Expo, held December 12-14 at the Imperial Palace.

NGC was on-site at the Dealer's Deal, accepting coins for encapsulation in their improved holders. The grading giant also confirmed that they are taking further steps in combating counterfeit slabs. As part of a program similar to what DGS has done since its inception, NGC has been quietly taking and storing digital images of both the obverse and reverse of every coin it certifies, now totaling over 750,000 specimens since October. They expect to have their newly designed website with image verification up and running within a few months.

Veteran hobbyists and well-heeled entrepreneurs have a common goal—to shelter their savings from the ravages of the Wall Street meltdown and recession. Though still acting the part of a bull, the consensus in Vegas was for generic pieces to weaken further, but the adjustment on early Type, better dates and eye appealing problem-free pieces is expected to be negligible. One dealer we spoke with advised that certified junk and recycled plastic will be available at lower levels in the coming year. Gold, as almost always, remains a hot topic in today's rare coin market. Fueled on December 10 by a surge to over $800 Spot, speculators as well as collectors put even more pressure on the ever dwindling supply of Gold coins. This certainly bodes well for what has already been a gold rush of historic proportions. Premiums attached to just about any raw or certified Gold haven't budged. Many participants still voice they would much rather have hard assets over the inflation ravaged paper based option.

With the holidays fast upon us, sight-unseen supporters are taking a bit of an early winter break. Many of the Classic Silver Commem entourage is sliding back as a flurry of auction appearances came up flat. All told, over 50 Commems that had been skating on thin ice fell through the cracks by as much as 20%. Support for the diminutive Gold counterparts is waning too, as several of the Classic-11 assembly take it on the chin. Leading the trek south is the 1926 Sesquicentennial Quarter Eagle. Feathering a new, lower nest are NGC MS67 examples after a coin pedigreed to the Prinzi collection sold for under $36K at the Southwest show auction. Prior to its Texas appearance, the coin's last public offering was at the Heritage Fun auction in 2007 when this same slab captured $54,625. Especially for Commems, the mood remains cautious, as both professional buyers and average Joe collectors are attempting to get a solid vibe as to where the price levels will settle in the near term. While Silver Spot climbs to over $10 per ounce, Morgan and Peace Dollars have teamed up to offer buyers at auction some early holiday gifts. Leading the backstroke was an 1891CC PCGS MS63DMPL, cashing out at $920, seeing sight-unseen Bid reel back by over 40%. There were even a few better date Morgans from the Jack Lee estate that didn't garner buyer approval, resulting in substantially lower Bids. However, the big story and payday for the winning buyer was had when a PCGS MS64 1894 Morgan realized $6,325, staring at a blind offer of $7,000. Peace Dollars were in a giving mood too, as an NGC MS64 1927S sailed under the radar at $805, leaving nearly $300 on the table. The topper, quite inexplicably, was the 1921 issue grading PCGS MS66, hammered home for $4,025 while a standing offer of $5K from a well-known dealer watched. A quick turn by the fortuitous winning buyer could have immediately parleyed this trio into a $1,945 profit. Mint State and Proof Type are displaying a few chinks in the armor too, as PCGS PR64 Barber Dimes, Quarters and Halves ease back, and PCGS MS65RD Indian Cents fall by over 20%. With Gold Spot spiking to an eight-week high of $822, Gold Type, specifically Double Eagles, are enjoying as much as a double digit advance, led by MS64 Saints marching in at $1,105.

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity, including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

To a Coin Collector, Confidence is Priceless

Everyone wants to be confident about the quality of a coin. When it's a CAC-verified coin, you can trade with confidence.

Whether you're a novice or advanced collector, you know that quality is what determines the value of a rare coin. The problem is, within any certified coin grade, not all coins are "solid" quality coins. Now there's an easy way to identify coins that are solid for the grade - just look for the CAC verification sticker.

CAC verifies previously graded coins and awards our green sticker only to those coins which meet our high standards for quality within their grade. What's more, CAC is a powerful market maker for CAC verified coins. In fact, this year alone, CAC has purchased over $50,000,000 worth of CAC verified coins..

Want confidence in the value of a coin? Look for the CAC sticker.

For more confidence in the value of a coin, look for the CAC green sticker.

PROOFLIKE MORGAN DOLLARS

Next Destination For FUN
Last Issue Of 2008—Happy Holidays!

While the calendar on the wall indicates the end of the year, for most dealers and collectors, the journey never ends. The next big adventure is in the Sunshine State, scheduled for January 8-11, and should keep the excitement going strong. Orlando will host the venerable FUN Show, which will set the early tone for 2009. The quartet of Florida auctions will certainly have some heads spinning and wallets emptied as a wide array of certified numismatic treasures jumps out of the starting blocks. We have listed several highlights from each of the three Pre-FUN shows, which occupy the January 4-5 slot. Remember, all of this action commences before the host show even opens its doors.

This past year, filled with sales of certified wonders, has seen incredible success in spite of the devastating conditions in the global economy. Buyers are gobbling up quality slabbed coins as fast as they appear on the bourse or at auction. Winding out the 2008 crusade, David Lawrence raked in nearly $560,000 during their sale last Thursday, marking their 308th internet-only auction. Apparently, buyers aren't bashful when parting with cash before the holidays: of the 433 lots sold, 11 brought 5 figures, led by a phenomenal 1901S Barber Quarter. This PCGS MS65 key to the series, adorned with the CAC sticker of approval on an OGH, reeled in a powerful $82,369. Top-tier rarities such as this are not finding much resistance when they come to market. An additional 200 CAC approved slabs will be offered by David Lawrence in a special internet auction which ends Christmas day.

With the Fed stepping in and lowering the overnight rates to an unprecedented target range of 0 to .25%, and the US Dollar continuing its slide south, Gold has responded with nearly a $100 advance since our last report. Calculating buyers, biding their time on the perimeter and armed with copious cash reserves, are definitely giving rare coins the nod. Those in that elite group desirous of instant gratification might want to take a look at the finest known assembly of Mint State Three Cent Nickels offered as a single lot in the upcoming Bowers & Merena sale. The 23 coins, covering 1865-1889, are the finest certified compilation, and all have been adorned with a CAC sticker. As we go to press, the pre-Bidding was at $203,500. Well-heeled baby boomers may also have their eyes on finally completing a Roosevelt Dime set, and not your run-of-the-mill BU collection. For the enthusiast anxious to acquire the finest known, discerning eyes will give a long hard look at the Just Having Fun assembly. The top ranked set, covering 1946-1964, will make the headlines when Superior opens the inaugural public auction floodgates of 2009 on January 4. The sale concludes with the PCGS MS68FB 1964D Roosevelt issue, this the finest example known, with a population of one, out of the original mintage of nearly 1.4 billion.

With Spot Silver trading at around $11, Morgan Dollars are courting some action as MS63 and MS66 generics inch up, and the 1878 7/8 PCGS MS65DMPLs top $9,500. Gold Type is as hot as ever. Leading the flurry of action are the Double Eagles, featuring $20 Saints on the receiving end of a $75 bump-up in MS65. Type III $20 Libs are riding an $80 advance for MS63 specimens, settling in at $1,315. Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa in the numismatic world. ANACS reported this week that they have just certified the 14th 1792 Silver Center Cent, Judd #1. The proud American treasure has been encapsulated as VG10 Details. The owner, a collector from California, submitted the coin for authentication after he bought the piece at a local police auction for $400. This classic has a current estimated market value of $300,000. Merry Christmas!

The Certified Coin Dealer newsletter (the Bluesheet) reports current wholesale market Bids for coins certified by the most active grading services, determined through careful study of market activity (including the highest nationally reported sight-unseen Bids, Asks, Trades, prior levels, and auction prices). The CCDn may not respond to the removal of a high Bid, but will be strongly influenced by the lowering of an unsupported high Bid or by Asks or Trades which are near or below current Bid. CCDn uses every means available to insure accuracy and completeness of the wholesale levels shown. Individual buy and sell prices will vary among dealers, are strictly the responsibility of the dealers, and may fluctuate according to needs. CCDn does not represent that it is possible to purchase selected coins at Bid levels.

Certification does not guarantee protection against the normal risks associated with potentially volatile markets. Client or sight-seen sales may command a substantial premium above Bluesheet Dealer-to-Dealer Bids.

COMMEMORATIVES

Some bids within represent very conservative sight-unseen buy prices on the part of the highest visible bidder. In these cases, a more accurate reflection of a coin's true value may be found in the CDN, albeit, on a sight basis.

To a Coin Collector, Confidence is Priceless

Everyone wants to be confident about the quality of a coin. When it's a CAC-verified coin, you can trade with confidence.

Whether you're a novice or advanced collector, you know that quality is what determines the value of a rare coin. The problem is, within any certified coin grade, not all coins are "solid" quality coins. Now there's an easy way to identify coins that are solid for the grade - just look for the CAC verification sticker.

CAC verifies previously graded coins and awards our green sticker only to those coins which meet our high standards for quality within their grade. What's more, CAC is a powerful market maker for CAC verified coins. In fact, this year alone, CAC has purchased over $50,000,000 worth of CAC verified coins..

Want confidence in the value of a coin? Look for the CAC sticker.

For more confidence in the value of a coin, look for the CAC green sticker.

The Next Generation
Coin Holder from NGC

NGC introduces the ultimate protection for your prized possessions.

The new NGC EdgeView® Holder ensures the ultimate in security and protection for your coins. We've incorporated cutting-edge features, including a micro-printed label with a UV watermark, and an advanced-technology hologram fused directly onto the back of the holder — that is virtually impossible to reproduce. Directional pressure welding cleanly and completely seals your coin inside the holder.

The unique materials employed are identical to those tested, and now used, by the Smithsonian in its NGC-developed museum holder that houses the National Numismatic Collection's most valuable coins. Plus, NGC's lauded EdgeView design suspends the coin within four cushioned prongs to showcase its edge and enhance the overall presentation.

Hobby-leading innovation — just another way we demonstrate our rare commitment to numismatics.
